

TIERS OF ACTIVITIES

Lists of Suggestions from Chat

What should be managed in the locker room?

- Team Gear - Clothes
- Making it clean, no trash
- Packing up equipment and cleaning the training spaces
- The way the team treats each other
- Player to player conflict
- Low level drama
- Holding team to its standards--ones they helped shape as well
- Appropriate dialogue
- Practice ready team
- Clear outline of expectations
- Laundry, team accountability/conflict
- Attendance
- Basic Social Media
- Inclusion of team

What should be managed by the Assistant Coach?

- Conflict resolution
- Field Issues, Equip Issues
- Small conflict resolution
- Persistent issues that don't get resolved
- Become one with the players, sometimes players are nervous to come to head coach
- The drip drip drips
- Travel /Bus Schedules
- Low level meetings. Upkeep of social media platforms at the HS level.
- Practice drills, team event logistics, academic monitoring
- Recruiting
- Drill ideas

What should be managed by the Head Coach?

- Things that are relevant to the whole group.
- Playing time
- Parent interactions
- Team bonding
- Culture
- Schedule, team rules
- Title 9
- Making sure everyone understands what the vision is, what the guideposts are, how decisions are made
- Culture and team morals
- Staff and player development, program culture
- Direction of their sport program, culture amongst assistants, setting expectations, keeping expectations, monitoring perception of players and coaches
- Staff development
- Mental health, parents, modeling
- Staff management

What should be managed by the AD?

- Compliance, law, money or budget issues,
- Athlete ineligibility due to contractual behavior
- Eligibility, spending , helping bring in new gear or equipment
- Finances, overall direction of the district athletic program, safety, UIL guidelines/compliance, staff self-reporting, ethical/moral issues amongst coaches
- Fan behavior
- Law
- Injuries
- Any issues with other programs that are struggling to be managed (how field is being left etc)
- Budget, Legal
- Budget and discipline regarding school punishment that will impact the team
- Facility equity, communication, financial